Group Study of the ECK Discourses

ECKANKAR

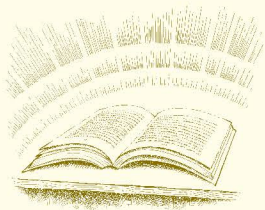

Religion of the Light and Sound of God

Sri Harold Klemp, the Mahanta, the Living ECK Master

Sat means true or unchangeable, and sang means union. Therefore, union with that which is pure and imperishable is Satsang.

—The Shariyat-Ki-Sugmad,
Book Two

As a collective body the Satsang brings harmony, peace, and happiness to the individual, and to all entities within the universes of God.

Journey into the Heart of God

The purpose of Satsang is to help you find your own relationship with Divine Spirit.

What Is an ECK Satsang Class?

Satsang is a spiritual forum for ECK members to explore the wisdom of the ECK discourses together.

Led by a trained teacher (Arahata), classes meet monthly for an hour to an hour and a half reviewing a lesson you've read at home.

Bring Your Spiritual Curiosity!

- Share experiences and insights with fellow spiritual explorers.
- Ask questions—and learn ways to find your own answers.
- Explore the discourses in depth from a variety of viewpoints.

How Can You Benefit from an ECK Satsang Class?

Each class is a chance to discover

- Your own success with Soul Travel, dreams, and the Spiritual Exercises of ECK
- The many ways the Mahanta, the Inner Master, gives you guidance
- How each discourse lesson relates to you and your life today
- God's love in every aspect of your life

Most of all, Satsang class is a place to share the Mahanta's love for you as Soul—a love greater than words can express!

Satsang Study at Home

Reading the ECK discourses and making contact with the ECK Sound Current is also Satsang. If you study alone, the workbook activities and audio excerpts on CD will help you delve more deeply into the discourse lessons.

ECKANKAR is a path for the individual, and the guidance, love, and protection of the Mahanta are always with you.
