

ECKANKAR CANCELS INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR

Annual Seminar Usually Attracts 2,300 Attendees from 40 Countries

March 6, 2020, CHANHASSEN, MN —Eckankar, a global religious organization based in Chanhassen, Minnesota announced today that its 2020 ECK Springtime Seminar scheduled for April 10–12, in Minneapolis, has been cancelled in light of recent developments with the novel coronavirus, COVID-19.

Eckankar’s leadership team consulted with the Minnesota Department of Health and monitored updates from the United States’ Centers for Disease Control and the World Health Organization to determine how to best be of service to the local community and seminar attendees.

“Health authorities around the world are expressing deep concern about the risks of holding large events in the wake of the worldwide COVID-19 outbreak,” said Patrick Milan, spokesperson for Eckankar. “The health and wellbeing of the community and seminar attendees was Eckankar’s first priority in making this decision.”

“Eckankar appreciates the support of a large group of community partners in Minneapolis and Chanhassen,” said Susan Miller, president of Eckankar. “We recognize the unavoidable impact on local businesses who enjoy the support of our visitors, and we thank them for their understanding.”

Eckankar expects to hold its fall seminar in Minneapolis in October 2020.

For more information about Eckankar, visit www.Eckankar.org.

###