

Secrets of Divine Creativity

Sri Harold Klemp

The spiritual life is not meant to finally end the succession of problems, for they are given as opportunities for Soul's unfoldment. What the spiritual student does develop, however, is the inner link with the ECK, the Holy Spirit.

Thus he taps into the Supreme Creative Force that guides him around all the blocks in his path that once defeated him. One's ability to take charge of his own life increases.

This is a solid step toward self-mastery.

The imagination is the God-spark within you. In the power of divine creativity, there is no limitation whatsoever. The creative imagination can lift us into truly becoming godlike beings.

As we go about our day, ideas come through on how to solve problems, how to make our work easier, or how to make things better for someone else. These ideas come from the creative imagination which, to state it as simply as possible, is God in expression, manifesting Its creation through us. The creative imagination is the element that makes us godlike.

It is God's special gift to us.

We like our lives to go easy. We want them to go smoothly. And when they do, it's interesting—our creativity often goes to sleep. But when things get hard, then we become awake. And the harder they get, if we're at all spiritual, the more creative we become.

Soul, in Its pure state, is a survivor. There is always a way. But we must exercise our creative talents.

So put creative imagination into all your spiritual exercises. It, with the Master's help, can set aside blocks to our well-being put there by a meddling mind.

Where imagination goes, there is Soul.
