

Spiritual Self-Confidence

From A Modern Prophet Answers Your Key Questions about Life, Book 3

By Sri Harold Klemp

How do you stay detached in a world where so many negative events occur on a regular basis?

Rogues and rascals and their wreckage are meat for the media. They pummel the public with bad news. Add natural disasters to the mix. And not to overlook things in our personal lives that destroy our plans and expectations.

Trust. That's what it comes down to.

How much confidence have we that life, the ECK, is giving us opportunities to meet ourselves and smooth out the rough spots in our spiritual makeup?

Yet any transformation isn't done for us. We partake in it.

The ECK and you. This participation defines what it means to be a Coworker with the MAHANTA, the Living ECK Master.

God created us. To become godlike, we must create too.

Creation is invention. It's the stuff of inventors and entrepreneurs. Where others see annoyances or problems, they look for opportunities to address them creatively.

Attention linked to creativity will dry up the negative stream's hold on you.

That's how to become detached and positive.

What is the meaning of spiritual self-confidence?

It is knowing who and what you are (Soul). It is knowing what is to your spiritual advantage (loving the SUGMAD, the ECK, and the MAHANTA, the Living ECK Master). It is also loving yourself, your true nature.

This is the bedrock of your self-confidence.

Stand firmly on this foundation. The winds of mockery, anger, rejection, and lack of will may try to upend and defeat you, but have confidence, for the Master stands by your side.

Sing HU in rain and in sunshine. This will open your Spiritual Eye and ears to the MAHANTA's ever-abiding love and presence.

You are indestructible; you are everlasting.

Soul has changed outer forms many times since Its creation and will continue to do so as long as Its education in the lower worlds is necessary. Every experience—good, bad, or indifferent—teaches It a new facet of divine love.

Life, after all, is about love. Spiritual self-confidence comes naturally as love grows within you.
