

PERILS OF REVENGE

Q: I have heard of chelas and even some HIs who ask the MAHANTA to revenge those who they know or feel are attacking them psychically. I know this is wrong. What would you say to them?

A: The MAHANTA never brings harm to any Soul.

Consider: Thoughts of revenge will bind you ever closer to that which you seek to avoid. In wanting the ECK to bring harm to another person, you have aligned yourself fully with the Kal forces. This can only bring you sorrow.

Is ECK the path for you?
