

THE SOUND ROOM

Go into contemplation and find yourself on the inner planes with Wah Z, the Inner Master. He takes you to a room in a beautiful Temple of Golden Wisdom. He says, "This is the Sound room. Would you like a Sound healing?" You say, "Sure."

He tells you to climb on the big stone table in the center of the room. As you lie there, the Sound Current of ECK begins massaging your inner bodies. This relaxes you, and the transformation begins. After a little while you feel the Sound Current raise you off the table toward the ceiling. You pass through a small opening into higher states, where the Sound Current is much more refined.

Feel your troubles or pain gradually leave you until they are all gone. Then come out of contemplation.

When the healing occurs, it brings balance to the inner bodies. It may take some time to filter to the physical, and your life tomorrow might not be easier than it was today. But at least now you know about the Sound room at the Temple of Golden Wisdom and can ask to go there whenever you need to.

—Sri Harold Klemp

The Sound
Current of ECK begins massaging your inner bodies.
